Winter Activities

We are getting excited about winter here in Summit County, CO. The snow is falling and the lifts are turning. A-Basin, Copper and Keystone are open and Breck opens on the 9th.

Breckenridge and Copper

Mountain are well known for all the festivals and events that take place during the winter months. The vibe is always fun whether you are six or 60! Here are some of the events scheduled for the winter.

Breckenridge

- 1/1/07 Lighting of Breckenridge
- 12/11-12/16 Chevy US Snowboard Grand Prix
- 1/6-1/11 Ullr Fest
- 1/22-1/17 Snow Sculptures

Spring Skiing in the High Country

"April is too late for skiing." Is that what you think?

Actually, April is a great month to visit us. The rates are low and the lift lines are short. Not to worry, the snow is still plentiful in April and sunny weather makes for excellent conditions.

Copper Mountain

- 12/15-12/25 High Alpine Holidays
- 11/24 Gobbler Snowshoe Race
- 1/20-1/22 US Snowboarding Revolution Tour

UllrFest parade paying homage to the Norse God of Snow.

Autumn & Buddha celebrate Halloween in the Breck Summit Mountain Rentals office.

Breckenridge offers up their Spring Massive festival in early April. This event offers entertainment, family activities and competitions making it the perfect complement to spring skiing.

Copper Mountain serves up spring skiing in style with the Sunsatation weekends. Live music all day the first two weekends in April make for a great way to spring ski.

Call before 12/31/07 to receive 15 percent off new April bookings (mention discount code NSLTR).
